

FedEx Boosts International Priority Airfreight Service

FedEx Express said Monday it is increasing the reach of its FedEx International Priority Freight service to cover more than 130 countries and is also enhancing its domestic FedEx Express Freight service.

FedEx Express Freight is a time-definite, premium airfreight service for heavy domestic and international palletized shipments weighing more than 150 pounds. It also is available for shipments exceeding normal size restrictions.

After launching an additional 64 markets in Europe, Latin America, Africa, the Middle East and the Caribbean beginning in August 2006, the service is now offered in more than 130 countries, FedEx said.

FedEx Express is a unit of FedEx Corp., ranked No. 2 on the Transport Topics 100 listing of U.S. and Canadian for-hire carriers.
